Professional Summary:

Abdul specializes in Dispute Resolution and Litigation, with extensive experience representing and advising clients across a wide spectrum of civil, commercial, constitutional, regulatory, criminal, labour, and consumer disputes. He regularly appears before the Karnataka High Court, District Courts, Commercial Courts, Consumer Forums, Labour Authorities, and various quasi-judicial tribunals, handling matters from inception through final adjudication.

His practice is centered on advising clients on litigation strategy and representing them before the Supreme Court of India, various High Courts, National Company Law Tribunals (NCLTs), the National Company Law Appellate Tribunal (NCLAT), the National Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission (NCDRC), and both ad hoc and institutional arbitral tribunals. He has represented leading corporates in complex commercial disputes and regularly advises on litigation prevention, dispute resolution strategies, and effective litigation closure mechanisms.

Abdul's practice focuses on complex commercial litigation, constitutional and writ matters, regulatory proceedings, financial recovery actions, real estate and property disputes, employment and labour matters, and arbitration-related proceedings. He also advises clients on dispute risk assessment, regulatory compliance, and pre-litigation resolution strategies, while drafting and settling a wide range of pleadings, legal opinions, contractual documentation, and strategic advisory materials.
