Professional Summary:

Priyanka is the Director – Legal at King Stubb & Kasiva, Advocates & Attorneys, with extensive experience in Labour & Employment law. She advises domestic and international businesses on a broad range of employment-related matters, including drafting and reviewing employment documentation, workplace policies, employee handbooks, HR advisory, disciplinary proceedings, domestic enquiries, workforce restructuring, executive employment, employee benefits, POSH compliance, internal investigations, and statutory compliance. She works closely with founders, senior management, HR teams, and in-house counsel to develop effective workplace governance frameworks and ensure legal compliance while supporting business objectives.

In addition to her employment law practice, she advises startups, multinational corporations, and technology-driven businesses on corporate, commercial, and regulatory matters, including contract negotiations, corporate governance, legal due diligence, technology transactions, and data privacy compliance. With prior experience leading the legal function of an AI-driven legal technology company and representing clients before the High Court of Karnataka, she provides commercially focused legal solutions across advisory, transactional, and dispute resolution matters.

Representative Clients :

Priyanka has advised a diverse range of clients, including founder-led businesses, multinational corporations, technology companies, and emerging enterprises. She works closely with senior management and in-house legal teams on labour and employment, corporate governance, regulatory compliance, commercial transactions, technology-related matters, and risk management. Combining legal expertise with commercial insight, she helps organizations navigate complex legal frameworks, manage risks, and support sustainable business growth.
