Professional Summary:

Aparajita is a dedicated real estate lawyer with extensive experience in title due diligence, conveyancing, and transaction management for developers, lenders, and corporate clients. She specialises in chain-of-title investigations, resolving encumbrances, and drafting and negotiating sale deeds, development agreements, lease deeds, partition/conveyance documents, while also handling regulatory land-use and municipal compliance matters. Known for her pragmatic and detail-oriented approach, Aparajita excels in conducting due diligence searches, preparing issue memos and remediation plans, and drafting closing packs that minimise post-closing risks. She routinely advises on title defect mitigation and curative documentation, while also creating templates, checklists, and streamlined workflows that enable faster turnarounds and commercially sound outcomes for clients.
