MEDIA & ENTERTAINMENT LAW PARTNER

ARPIT CHAUDHRY

King Stubb & Kasiva, Advocates & Attorneys - Mumbai

OVERVIEW

Profile

Arpit is a media and entertainment lawyer with over 14 years of experience advising leading film studios, broadcasters, production houses, digital platforms, content aggregators, investors and high-profile talent on complex transactional, regulatory and dispute resolution matters.

His practice spans the entire content lifecycle, development, acquisition, production, financing, co-production, distribution, licensing, syndication and exploitation of intellectual property across films, television, OTT platforms, web series, documentaries and other digital content. He regularly advises clients on media rights management, intellectual property commercialisation, digital content strategies, commercial negotiations, and risk management in high-value transactions.

Arpit has significant experience structuring domestic and cross-border co-production arrangements, IP licensing and monetisation, film financing, structured funding and securitisation of content rights, distribution and exploitation agreements, joint ventures, strategic alliances, and investment transactions involving media and technology businesses. He also represents clients in high-stakes litigation, arbitration and mediation involving copyright, contractual, commercial and media-related disputes.

Prior to private practice, Arpit served as in-house counsel with leading media and multinational organisations, including Zee Entertainment Enterprises Limited, Sony Pictures Networks India and Publicis Groupe. His in-house experience gives him a strong commercial perspective, enabling him to deliver practical, business-oriented legal solutions aligned with clients' strategic objectives.
